Colloquial English 1: Saying hello

Extra practice · listening, speaking and review

Your first real conversation: say hello, give your name, say where you are from.

Match question and answer

- Hello! What's your name?

I'm Marco. And you?

- Where are you from?

I'm from Italy.

- How are you?

I'm fine, thank you.

- Nice to meet you.

Nice to meet you too.

- Goodbye!

Bye! See you tomorrow.

What do you say?

Someone says 'Hello, I'm Ana.' You say...

You want to know the country. You ask...

'How are you?' — Good answer:

You leave the room. You say...

At the school reception

Read the conversation aloud with a partner (or read both parts yourself).

Sofia: Good morning! Welcome to Apex English. What's your name?

Marco: Hello. My name is Marco. Marco Rossi.

Sofia: Nice to meet you, Marco. Where are you from?

Marco: I'm from Italy, from Turin.

Sofia: Great. And your phone number, please?

Marco: It's oh-nine-one, four-five-six, seven-eight-two.

Sofia: Thank you. Your class is in room three. See you at six o'clock.

Marco: Thank you very much. Goodbye!

- What is the student's full name?

Now you speak

Speak for about 60 seconds. Use each of these at least once:

- say hello and give your name
- ask 'And you?' / 'What's your name?'
- say your country and city
- say your phone number slowly
- say goodbye politely

Write full sentences

- Write 3 sentences about you: your name, your country, your city.

Answer key: Model: My name is Ana. I'm from Brazil. I'm from São Paulo.

- Write two questions you can ask a new classmate.

Answer key: Model: What's your name? Where are you from?
